Beyond the Fields Search

D S A F D T S W B T T Q X Z Z L G X N M
R F C B Z A U A L V T H Q Q T O G R I B
A N U Z S A B I L F E A B N B I S D A H
Y U C V F A S R N B W G V N W M D S R L
T Y X Q Y K I Z N O B K Z X V L Z L Y H
P G H P V N S Z D R V A Q N E M M A Z L
E A J J U V T Q R O N V N P W I O V E R
W V K X Y W E B R R V U A U R B Z E E C
S K B M Q N N S X S M S T C U S Y R T W
Z X E N O Y C E I P S E J H G A Y L E J
X O S L A V E R Y A V R T N N L L H N E
A K E V U D F S G Y J Z O S R Q Q G Z V
H Y J O K U A E L V L S Q L Y L E A O G
G I A O R A R E L H K V B K X S S Q I P
P U F A J Y M N F R Q Q Y L K D K H J I
V I L F C S I D O Q K H I S P Q O S E C
Z M X L R B N W T T K H I O I Q E K A V
H Z B B A C G E V A L S D E L L I K S T
E W R N L H R R U F B S G K A M B P P N
C K V A Y X H D N P F L N L R M I D G A

A person who is owned by another person, not paid for work, and has no rights or freedom

Practice of owning slaves

Slave who special training in a trade making him/her more valuable than an unskilled slave

An African tradition of maintaining a grass-free area around one's dwelling, adopted by many people throughout the South until late in the 20th century

The practice of growing most of one's food oneself, reducing dependence on outside sources; may sometimes be done in conjunction with growing a cash crop for sale

Among African Americans, a form of music that included secular songs and spirituals; work songs not only set the pace for certain tasks and relieved the monotony of them, but could also double as coded communication between workers

System of slave management by which each slave was given a talk to complete in a day; when done, they had the remainder of the day to tend their own gardens or livestock, to fish or hunt, or pursue other interests

The culture originated from the blend of African slave culture with the colonial culture

The voyage of slaves across the Atlantic